The Little Hollywood Movie Museum is located directly behind Little Hollywood Land in a grove of lush cottonwood trees. The museum has been designed as a fully immersive experience. As you walk among the movie sets, you are encouraged to touch and relive the vivid illusions brought to the big screen by some of the world's most famous actors and directors. This location offers old western style buildings, large meeting rooms, and a gift shop ideal for obtaining potential props. <http://www.frontiermovietown.com>

Moqui Cave

Address: On the east side of U.S. 89, about 5 1/2 miles north of Kanab.

Contact: Lex or LeAnn Chamberlain

435-644-8525, hours 9 am-5 pm. Closed Sunday.

The Chamberlain family, descendants of Thomas and Mary Chamberlain, bought the cave in 1951, and the following year opened a tavern and dance hall in it. Although you can't order a drink today, the unique bar is still here, along with a huge collection of objects and artifacts that ranges from authentic dinosaur tracks (more than 140 million years old) to a beautiful fluorescent mineral display. You'll also see Native American pottery, spear points, and other art and artifacts. A large gift shop specializes in Native American arts and crafts.
