

2013 ENTRY FORM

READY. AIM. SHOOT!

The 3rd annual "Little Hollywood Shootout," quick turnaround film challenge is being held March 13-April 3, 2013. The "shootout" is a guerrilla filming competition providing aspiring filmmakers of all ages the chance to make a film in Utah's "Little Hollywood," home to landmark scenery where epic movies like "The Outlaw Josey Wales," and "Planet of the Apes," were filmed. The film competition starts at high noon on March 13, where requirements and assignments will be revealed at the beginning of the challenge. Participants must be present in Kanab, to start the challenge and most of the filming will be required to take place in Kane County at revealed locations. Editing and post production can take place at participants desired location. Film submissions are due on April 3, and films will be able to be submitted online.
